Minerale o naturale?

The screenshot shows the homepage of the 'Informa Consumatori' website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the site logo, a search bar, and a 'Cerca nel sito' button. Below the navigation bar is a horizontal menu with categories: Ambiente, Assicurazioni, Banche, Casa, Commercio, Diritti, Economia, Mondo, Famiglia, Lavoro, Privacy, Salute, Scuola&Giovani, Tecnologie, Telecomunicazioni, Viaggi, Vignette, Normative, Modulistica, and Consi. A 'News' button is highlighted in red. Below the menu, there is a section for 'Famiglia - notizie' with a sub-header 'Il nido che non c'è'. To the left, there is a sidebar with a 'News' section and a 'Minerale o naturale?' article. The article text discusses the preference for tap water over bottled water among Italians, citing the AQUA ITALIA association and a recent government decision. A small image of water being poured into a glass is visible on the right side of the article.
